

Record of David Erwin

The Condict Revolutionary Record

Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society, New Series, Vol. VIII - 1923, p. 312.

He was apprentice to Col. Alling; was a blacksmith; at beginning of the War moved to Hanover from Newark. Esq. Fairchild knew him in Neal's Artillery, serving 2 months in Dec., 1776, and Jan., 1777; was with army from Elizabethtown, retreating to Brunswick and to Morristown; was at Springfield before the Battle; returned to Chatham; thence to Morristown till July 1. Afterward he belonged to Bates' Company and served at Minisink, Bergen and at Newark in Ob. Kitchell's Company and at Monmouth Battle. His wife, Catherine, was a dau. of Moses Munson. After the War they removed to New York City and then to Western New York.